

THE STUDENT ADVOCATE

Volume 10

1998

CONTENTS

EDITORIAL		vii
ARTICLES
Arvind Narrain	Towards A Better Legal Education for the New Century - a Student's Perspective	1
Ankit Majmudar Nandan Kamath	Why Doesn't Ignorantia Juris Excuse? - A Study of the Law Relating to Mistakes	10
Tushna Thapliyal	Do Be Do Be Do - Language, Law and the Theory of Deconstruction	20
NOTES AND COMMENTS
Gautam Rohidekar	NBFC Regulations: Mistakes of the Past and Challenges of the Future	26
Nithyanandan R. S. Suhas	Companies Bill, 1997: Provisions on Raising Finance	32
Vinod George Joseph	Tax Implications of Reverse Mergers	38
Sumit Baudh	Corporate Criminal Liabilities: A Review in Light of Tata-ULFA Nexus	44
Gautam Narasimhan	Revisiting S. 105 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872	52
Samir Gandhi	State Sponsored Terrorism and the International Legal Regime	58
Smitha Murthy	Controlling Pollution Through Trade Restrictions	63
Shyel Trehan Shuva Mandal	The Polluter Pays Principle	67
George Cyriac Shamik Sanjanwala	Environmental Impact Assessment in India: An Appraisal	74

Maling Gombu Julie Buragohain	Internal Self Determination: An Alternative to the Secessionist Movements in India's North East	81
Vinay Reddy	Prospective Overruling: Need for a Relook	90
Sujata Iyengar Gautam Narasimhan	Should Lawyers be brought under COPRA	95
Anuj Bhuwania P.K. Prabhat	Should Lawyers be brought under COPRA: A Rejoinder	100
CASE COMMENTS
Rahul Gulati Mathew Chandy	Bharat Kumar v. State of Kerala: A Critical Review	105
BOOK REVIEWS
Samuel Mani	An Expensive Ready Reckoner	108
Vineet Subramani	The Constitution on the Coffee Table	111
INDEX		114